Sunshine.

I sat in a darkened chamber;

Near by sang a tiny bird;

Through all my deep pain and sadness,

A wonderful song I heard.

The brilliant bright sang in the sunlight

From out of a golden throat;

The song of love he was singing

Grew sweeter with every note.

I opened my casement wider

To welcome the song I heard;

Straight into my waiting bosom

Plew sunshine and song and bird.

No longer I now am sighing;

The reason cannot thou diviner—

The birdling with me abideth,

And sunshine and song are mine.

SAN DIEGO UNION: The indications of active operations on the Utah South ern Railroad seem to be multiplying.

Correspondents in Utah speak of the matter as a certainty. The construction of this road really means the extension of the Union Pacific Railroad to the Pacific coast, and that means to San Diego, which is the only harbor on this side of San Francisco. With a water frontage available for commerce of twenty-four miles, and an area of deep water anchorage of six miles, San Diego harbor must be the true objective point of a great line of railway coming south from Salt Lake.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

GENERAL LAND OFFICE,

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 12, 1877.

Register and Receiver, U. S. Land Office—Gentlemen: The following is the text of an Act of Congress, approved March 3, 1877, and entitled "An Act to provide for the sale of desert lands in certain States and Territories."

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the U. S.

of America in Congress assembled,

That it shall be lawful for any citizen of the United States, or any person of requisite age "who may be entitled to be a citizen, and who has filed his declaration to become such, and upon payment of twenty-five cents per acre, to file a declaration, under oath, with the register and receiver of the land district in which any desert land is situated, that he intends to reclaim a tract of desert land not exceeding one section, by conducting water upon the same, within the period of three years thereafter; provided, however, that the right to the use of water by the person so conducting the same, on or to any tract of desert land of six hundred and forty acres shall depend upon bona fide prior appropriation; and such right shall not exceed the amount of water actually appropriated, and necessarily used for the purpose of irrigation and reclamation; and all surplus water over and above such actual appropriation and use, together with the water of all lakes, rivers and other sources of water supply upon the public lands and not navigable, shall remain and be held for the appropriation and use of the public for irrigation, mining and manufacturing purposes, subject to existing rights. Said declaration shall describe particularly said section of land it surveyed, and, if unsurveyed, said section shall be described as possible without a survey. At any time within the period of three years after filing said declaration upon making satisfactory proof to the register and receiver of the reclamation of said tract of land in the manner aforesaid, and upon the payment to the receiver of the additional sum of one dollar per acre for a tract of land not exceeding six hundred and forty acres to any one person, a patent for the same shall be issued to him. Provided, that no person shall be permitted to enter more than one tract of land and not to exceed six hundred and forty acres which shall be in compact form.

Section 2. That all lands exclusive of timber and mineral lands which will not, without irrigation, produce some agricultural crop, shall be deemed desert lands, within the meaning of this act, which fact shall be ascertained by proof of two or more credible witnesses under oath, whose affidavits shall be filed in the land office in which said tract of land may be situated.

Section 3. That this act shall only apply to and take effect in the States of California, Oregon and Nevada, and the Territories of Washington, Idaho, Montana, Utah, Wyoming, Arizona,

New Mexico and Dakota, and the termination of what may be considered desert land shall be subject to the decision and regulation of the Commissioner of the General Land Office.

The declaration specified in the first section of this act, to be filed with the Register and Receiver, must be under oath, and may be executed before either the Register or Receiver, or the clerk of any court of record having a seal. It must set forth that the applicant is a citizen of the United States, or that he has declared his intention to become such, in which case a duly certified copy of his declaration of intention to become a citizen must be presented and filed. It must also be set up that the applicant has made no other declaration for desert lands under the provisions of this act, and that he intends to reclaim the tract of land applied for, not exceeding one section, by conducting water thereon within three years from the date of his declaration. The declaration of the land applied for, by legal subdivisions if surveyed, or, if unsurveyed, as nearly as possible without a survey by giving with as much clearness and precision as possible the locality of the tract with reference to known and conspicuous land marks or the established lines of survay, so as to admit of its being identified after readily identified when the
